REBELLION REWARDED.

While Mr. Laurier is in Britain, accepting honors from the British Queen and people, let us take a glance at what has been done in Mr. Laurier's name in the Canadian Northwest, comments the Hamilton Spectator. It was announced in the Hamilton Spectator that certain Canadians had fought for their country during the recent rebellion had been dismissed from the public service, and that rebels had been appointed in their place. There was some attempt made at denial by the Grit press, and more attempt to tangle the business up so that nobody could understand it. One of those rebels is Maxime Lapeere, and another is Charles Rolin. These rebels were made to look like good fellows of the identity of these two men, and may know something of the kind of men Mr. Laurier is appointing to office in public life, the following from the Winnipeg Free Press is reproduced:

In case J. Grant McAra desires any further particulars to enable him to identify the Lapeere who was appointed to the Western post, he is informed that it is the Maxime Lapeere who, on Aug. 1, 1885, was with 25 rebels, before Judge Richardson at Regina on the charge that he "falsely and wickedly did, maliciously, unlawfully and wilfully, intend to levy war against our lady the Queen within Canada in order by force and constraint to compel the execution of measures and counsels." To that charge he pleaded guilty; whereupon he was sentenced to seven years imprisonment, the penitentiary. That had a fair trial and the plot of guile and treachery of the rebellion, is shown by the fact that he had the advantage of the legal services of Messrs. Macdonald, Fraser, Ferguson, Bannan and H. J. Clarke. The Maxime Lapeere, the character given him by J. Grant McAra cannot be the same man, as he is highly as an Indian farm instructor. If Mr. Rolin has given that position to a man who was drunk and incapable, the appointment is so much the worse. But, as it happens, Charles Rolin's identification of the rebels is not correct, as his name was attached, declaring a war of extermination on Major Cronin and the Government, was not by him. He was secured from his own confession, as he was drunk; so J. Grant McAra's ingenious attempt at a definition of the rebels is not correct. The identification in question was made by Charles Rolin in open court, as Regina, on July 29, 1885, when he was being examined before Justice Richardson as a witness at the trial of Louis Rolin for treason. The names given by Rolin on that occasion are on record. In that evidence Rolin admits that he was instrumental in bringing Rolin to Montana in 1884 to acquire land, and that he was Rolin's confidant in his efforts to export $100,000 from the Government. He also admits that he was Rolin's confidant in his efforts to export $100,000 from the Government. He also admits that he was Rolin's confidant in his efforts to export $100,000 from the Government.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Chown Hall's Century Wedding. A very beautiful occasion.

The following is taken from the Kingston News of the 2nd inst.: "Last evening a happy event took place at the residence of Mr. Arthur Chown, Green street, when Mr. and Mrs. Chown celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Over eighty guests were present to offer their congratulations and to wish the veteran couple continued happiness in their old age. Those included Mr. and Mrs. William W. Chown and family, Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. A. Fred Chown and family, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Chown and family, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Chown and family, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. S. Chown and family, Belleville. The above-named gentlemen are all sons of Mr. Chown. All his sons were present, except Mr. Henry Chown, who is in the Valley. Mr. Chown's brothers and their children were also present."

Mr. Chown was born in Devonshire, England, 73 years ago. He came out to this country in 1822, and entered into business with Mr. Jas. Powell, tinsmith, when 13 years of age, serving with him for 7 1/2 years. He then continued a tinsmith for another man for a year. When he was 21 years old he and his brother, Mr. Ed. Chown, entered into partnership in the tinsmith business, and Mr. Arthur Chown continued in the business for 41 years. Before they had been long in partnership they branched out into the hardware business. In 1847, when the ship fever was doing its deadly work among the immigrants, Mr. Chown was married to Miss Elizabeth Gardner, of this city, who is still before him and was present at the joyful gathering last night.

The sons presented Mr. Chown with a handsome oak chair, richly upholstered. Mrs. Chown was also the recipient of a beautiful easy chair. Mr. Chown remembers Kingston in all its former glories. He says that when he came here, Barrie street was an immense hole, and the corner of Green street now is a bush, where he used to shoot rabbits. Both Mr. and Mrs. Chown are strong and well, and it is hoped that they will live many years yet to enjoy the respect they have earned by their many deeds of kindness. Many letters of congratulation were received. A box of fruit came all the way from California for the joyous event.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Chown Hall's Century Wedding. A very beautiful occasion.

The following is taken from the Kingston News of the 2nd inst.: "Last evening a happy event took place at the residence of Mr. Arthur Chown, Green street, when Mr. and Mrs. Chown celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Over eighty guests were present to offer their congratulations and to wish the veteran couple continued happiness in their old age. Those included Mr. and Mrs. William W. Chown and family, Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. A. Fred Chown and family, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Chown and family, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Chown and family, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. S. Chown and family, Belleville. The above-named gentlemen are all sons of Mr. Chown. All his sons were present, except Mr. Henry Chown, who is in the Valley. Mr. Chown's brothers and their children were also present."

Mr. Chown was born in Devonshire, England, 73 years ago. He came out to this country in 1822, and entered into business with Mr. Jas. Powell, tinsmith, when 13 years of age, serving with him for 7 1/2 years. He then continued a tinsmith for another man for a year. When he was 21 years old he and his brother, Mr. Ed. Chown, entered into partnership in the tinsmith business, and Mr. Arthur Chown continued in the business for 41 years. Before they had been long in partnership they branched out into the hardware business. In 1847, when the ship fever was doing its deadly work among the immigrants, Mr. Chown was married to Miss Elizabeth Gardner, of this city, who is still before him and was present at the joyful gathering last night.

The sons presented Mr. Chown with a handsome oak chair, richly upholstered. Mrs. Chown was also the recipient of a beautiful easy chair. Mr. Chown remembers Kingston in all its former glories. He says that when he came here, Barrie street was an immense hole, and the corner of Green street now is a bush, where he used to shoot rabbits. Both Mr. and Mrs. Chown are strong and well, and it is hoped that they will live many years yet to enjoy the respect they have earned by their many deeds of kindness. Many letters of congratulation were received. A box of fruit came all the way from California for the joyous event.

THE LIBERAL CRITIC.

The Work of the Session Was

Not Commendable.

Pledge Was Broken. The Government

White in Opposition.

Huntingdon (Liberals)

The session of Parliament which is about to end at Ottawa is not looked upon with satisfaction either by Liberals or by the Conservatives. The new Government has failed to realize the expectation of those who placed it in power in three respects. In the first, in not reducing the tariff, and in granting of subsidies.

That the tariff is not what Liberals desired, is acknowledged on all sides. That the change from a system of protection to a system of free trade is not made gradually, is conceded. It was not desirable to cause a commercial crisis by suddenly overturning

a system which the late Government had laboriously built up. During eighteen years at the same time, this can be said, that the Ministers were too ready to listen to bankers and manufacturers in making the change a great deal less than they might have been.

The Ministry has been more cautious about the interests of the producer than the consumer. However, the tariff has been reduced, and the farmers accept it as an earnest of greater industrial freedom.

The manufacturers have got fair warning,

and if they do not adapt themselves in the near future to carry on business without specific protective duties they will have themselves to blame.

In failing to reduce the expenditure the disappointment has been complete. The bill is well grounded that Canada has not yet made the change from a system of protection to a system of free trade.

It is proposed to pretend that the change has been made, and that the

change has been made, and that the

change has been made, and that the

change has been made, and that the

change has been made, and that the

change has been made, and that the

ARTISTIC PICTURE FRAMING

—doesn't mean the mere matter of cutting up moulding, nailing the corners together, putting in a piece of glass, window pane, showing in the picture, and it up and away it goes. That sort of work ought not to answer for any picture—no matter how insignificant.

These and all the accessories and FRAMING will make this job a pleasure, more valuable, but intrinsically and artistically than if the work is carelessly executed.

The Sinclair & Ostrom picture framing business is a business that the dealer who takes the best work we are capable of in both the difference in price is in the quality and the quality of material used.

Antique artists and others will find us in touch with all the ideas of picture framing now in vogue in the large cities.

HAMMOCKS...

A VIOLENT STORM.

Immense Damage Done Yesterday by the Elements in the Centre of the Country.

A terrific storm passed from west to east over this country between two and three o'clock yesterday afternoon. The main force of the storm, the wind from the storm and the lightning was blowing, while the thunder was a continuous roar, and could be distinctly heard in theory. Great damage was done in the path of the storm. Houses were hit and down, while fields of grain were flattened to the earth, trees were uprooted and general devastation prevailed.

At starting the storm was severely felt. The lightning struck the steeple of the Methodist church near the top and damaged it considerably. The plaster was also torn from the ceiling of the interior. A house occupied by a man named Winter, near the church, was struck by the lightning and badly damaged, but no one was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, of this city, were attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Caldwell, of the town, and they drove under a big tree for protection. A bolt of lightning tore the headland from the horse and badly frightened the occupants of the buggy.

OBITUARY.

TREFFER VALIQUETTE.
Sudden and unexpected was the death of Mr. Treffer Valiquette on Saturday evening. He had complained for a day or two of not feeling well and was quite ill at Ivanhoe on Friday evening, but had not quit work. (On Saturday he was home all day, and shortly before noon he was taken down to rest on his bed. Upon rising to go to the barn he fell and expired within five minutes. Dr. Clinton was summoned and found that death was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel on the brain. Deceased was born at St. Martin, Levalle county, Que., fifty years ago. His wife was a Miss Dionne, of St. Anne. He had lived in Belleville twenty-six years, during which time he conducted a wood-yard for several years, also drove a city day and for the last three years had driven the Dominion Express Co's stage from Belleville to Ivanhoe. His wife and an adopted child survive him. He was a member of the C.M.B.A. Mr. Valiquette was a hard working, industrious man, highly respected by all who knew him for his gentlemanly demeanor and even temperance. The funeral took place at 3:30 this afternoon at St. Michael's church under the auspices of the C.M.B.A. and was attended by a large number of mourners. The bearers were Messrs. N. Lalonde, B. LeGault, J. Laroche, A. Tassin, J. F. Leduc and H. Lalonde. The casket was borne by St. Michael's church and the remains were interred in the R.C. cemetery.

MARCHED TO CHURCH.

The Organmen, Front Boys and True Blues at St. Andrew's Church.

Although the heat was intense yesterday forenoon there was a fairly good turnout by the Organmen, Front Boys and True Blues to attend divine service at St. Andrew's church.

Before taking his text Rev. M. W. Macleod had his hat soon much improved by feeling the conditions of the orders before him. Their first duty was to maintain the constitution of the church in which they lived, and this was the work of Christians. Their next duty was to help their fellowmen, which was another Christian principle. The constitution also calls for education, meaning that no man must be persecuted on account of his belief. There were three grand principles—patience, benevolence and tolerance. Such lofty aims gave the members of these orders much to do, and the associations will be strong as each individual is loyal to the principles.

His text was James 4:4, "For what is your life?"

The answer to this question was, I answered to the individual who answered it. The aged life has been a disappointment and a dream. To others it has been a well of excitement and gratification, but the life was none of these in a sense. The foundation of the faith of G. I. was a future state and our lives were staying stones to that state. Death was not so awful as life. Life should be man for the darkness preceding eternal life. The word of God clearly told us life was a divine gift and whether it was a blessing or a curse depended on the use we made of it. Life was a teacher, as new things were always coming up in our daily lives. We learned our weaknesses and that nothing in this world was lasting. Life was a journey, and we must be prepared to leave it. Life was a journey, and we must be prepared to leave it.

ANNUAL INSPECTION.

The 15th Battalion Being put through its yearly exercises.

LA-COL. OTHER D.O.G. of Military District No. 2, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Toronto, and began at the drill shed last evening the annual inspection of the 15th Battalion. Last evening was devoted entirely to company inspection, and A. B. C. Company, which was carefully examined by the Inspecting Officer. It was a school-boy test that the men underwent, but a rigid, careful inspection, and the inspection showed a marked improvement over last year. The manual, firing exercises and squad drill were well done by all, and especially so by
A. and B. companies.

After the evening's work LA-COL. OTHER was entertained by Col. Ponton and the officers of the battalion in the officers' quarters.

This morning the companies and stores were carefully inspected by Col. OTHER and all the troops of the regiment were looked over. Later in the forenoon the officers were questioned by the Inspecting Officer and their answers on the whole were satisfactory, showing a marked improvement over last year, due largely to the efforts of Serge. Beattie, who has spent a lot of time with the officers.

This afternoon the battalion are being inspected in field movements on the old creek field and this evening E. and F.
companies will get their examination, thus putting into two days what formerly took three days to do.

Clean out that Spring

"Now, send my wife to me some morning at breakfast, if you have time today. I wish you would clean out that spring. The water doesn't taste right, and there are many things in it that will make it taste better."

Now that spring was about a quarter of a mile from the house, and the water came down through a pipe. We used to have everything washed, cooked and drunk. It was very soft and sweet, and probably the spring temperature was the year-around. But things would get into it and it would be just as good as if it was a good deal of water, and it would be just as good as if it was a good deal of water.

fifteen million dollars, giving it a total improving power of some twenty-five million dollars. The sum, and more, will be needed within the next two or three years to carry through the schemes the Ministers have committed themselves to and to make good the deficit in revenue that the heavy administrative expenses will involve. Mr. Laurier is illustrating again the truth of the statement, that there has never been in Canada a Liberal Government, either in power or in opposition, that has not increased the expenditure, added to the debt, and augmented the taxes.

Lock the door. Before the horse is stolen. Duly, earnest and rather poor fellow (your typical Canadian) system before these attacks you should have locked the door. He is a very useful man, but you are strong and vigorous and will not be taken by the hand of the thief and the thief of disease. Take Hoof's Panacea.

Hoof's Pills are the favorite family affair. For to take, gentle, mild. 25 cents.

A POLITICAL THUNDERSTORM.

A POLITICAL THUNDERSTORM.

In swift succession came darker clouds, from which there broke in dazzling brilliance, accompanied by almost deafening thunder, the slashing criticisms of the many Liberal journals on the failure of their party in office to implement their professions of economy and purity made when in Opposition and their resort to

That ourn-picture of the situation is not in any respect exaggerated is evidenced by the Mirror of Montreal, which says that there can be no doubt as to the aplin in the Liberal party becoming more and more serious, for besides the complaints of several Rouge organs, there are protests now upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier personally. Thus, it is known that Mr. Geoffrion took with him to England a collective protest from an important group of Liberal members and politicians, asking for the immediate dismissal of Messrs. Tarte and Blair from the Cabinet. Our contemporary also states that Mr. Geoffrion took with him a letter from Mr. Madore, M. P. for

It is as a friend and well wisher of the Laurier Ministry that I venture to express my great disappointment with the results of their first year in office. Unless my gauge of public sentiment is a wrong one, many thousands of those who have voted and worked to put that Government in power on June 23, 1896, are as disappointed as I am.

The Liberal party in the House, and the Liberal press out of it, had, when in opposi-them, because their Tory prejudices are so left there, many times accurate in fact. The hatred this year of the Government, own making. Have they not shown themselves active every day at odds with the proper money and just as susceptible to the blandishment of begging delegations, and to other influences, as their Tory predecessors?

The Stratford Beacon, a strong Liberal, is sovereign upon the Laurier Government for its action in revoking subsidies to those railway companies which had failed to comply with the conditions. Our contemporary says:—

"The fact that the promoters of these enterprises had not been able to meet the requirements of the law shows that there was no urgent public demand for the railways. The promoters are mainly speculators who use the subsidy to rope people into buying the bonds. If they do not succeed in floating the bonds and complet-

the Treasury like Mr. Mackenzie. The feeling of those in active charge of it seems to be to encourage those advances, and to endeavor if possible to satisfy each company with a dolo, a contract or a railway subsidy title or no title. That is what the Banco means when it complains that the subsidies which were voted by the late Parliament to be granted on certain conditions being fulfilled, were revoked by the present Government without the fulfillment of the conditions, and after it had been shown that the railway was not needed by the country, and was only projected by speculators for the purpose of cajoling people to buy the bond, or, in other words, swindling.

The Simcoe Reformer in its last issue prints an "explanation" over the signature of the editor and proprietor, H. B. Hooley, from which we take the following:

I am told that some wise people are busy these days circulating as widely as they are able a story to the effect that the Simcoe Reformer has turned traitor to the Liberal party, and that John Charlton is responsible for the same. Both statements

THE WAY TO THE YUKON.

What sort of a ministry have we? We clip the following from the Toronto Globe under the caption of "Mr. Sifton's warning."

The amount of provisions which can be taken into that country at the present moment is extremely limited, and it will of responsibility. They are, and will be, responsible if they do not act. Out on the man who says, HE CAN'T; he is unworthy of a responsible position, his name should be changed to SHIRK.

We call on Sir Richard to live, as his great prototype LE NOIR FAINEANT did, draw his sword and put such life and force

We call on Sir Oliver to give such evidence of his Christianity as will not allow our fellows of the Yukon to suffer without an effort to assist them.

We call on Mr. Paterson, whose mind seems to be wholly engrossed in the collection of import duties on goods going into that country, to remember that facilities from the summit to Khondike, and a telephone wire strung without delay. The Post offices could be located, and postmen sent, with some certainty.

Lives precious to many of us are gone into that country, who, perhaps, are forced to leave in order to win leave for themselves to be at home. Fancy their achieving back at either end of that last distance without any knowledge of the other for months. It was the middle of February last before the residents of the Khondike knew who was elected President of the United States on the 4th of November previous. We may ACT, ACT! That country will sustain you in acting, and hold you responsible for dallying.

Diminutive size which Mr. Dingels, the author of the measure, provided. Then the President and members of cabinet thanked Mr. Dingels and the ceremony was over.

For a moment Mr. Dingley rose a bit out of the document which he had been reading, and looked at all parts of the world. They were admitted at once into the room, and Mr. Dingley, who was sitting quietly at the long Cabinet table with Secretary Gage and Attorney-General Cass, rose to greet the Postmaster-General, Gary and Secretary Wilson on the other. The President then came in, and Mr. Dingley shook hands cordially and proceeded at once to the work of approval. Mr. Porter then came in, and Mr. Dingley took up the document before the President. He had several pens at hand, the exact number of which he did not know, and he signed the tariff act, but Mr. Dingley unexpectedly taking a cue from his colleagues, who were all looking on, he pearl-handled pen, dignity enough for a President, for the signature. That was the end of the signing.

W. W. W. left the room and the incident was at an end.

A MESSAGE ABOUT MONEY.

President McKinley says the currency of the country is good, but the system is faulty.

Washington, D. C., July 24.—The following is the message sent by the Presi-

Nothing was settled more clearly at the late National election than the determination upon the part of the people to keep their currency stable in value and equal to that of the most advanced nations of the world.

The soundness of our currency is nowhere questioned. No loss can occur to its holders. It is the system which should be simplified and strengthened, keeping our money just as good as it is now with less expense to the Government and the people.

The sentiment of the country is strongly in favor of early action by Congress in this direction, to revise our currency remove them from partisan control.

admission in the marriage ceremony and the fact that the husband and wife are in their possession half of the unhappy sickness and death in the world would be sufficient to tell the truth. The most developed symptoms of that dread disease Consumption should not marry until cured. Consumption is a deadly disease. It is a crime to transmit to future generations the blood of the consumptive.

Many physicians pronounce consumption a fatal disease. It is a disease that is taken as thousands will testify. Dr. Pierce's "Purifier of the Blood" is a cure for all cases of consumption, and for all disorders of the digestion. It promptly insures the health of the blood, and it fills the blood with the tissue building elements of the food, and seizes and destroys all the disease germs, and purifies and disease germs. It makes rich and healthy blood, healthy flesh and strong, springy muscles. It cures and invigorates the nerves. Thousands of men and women have been cured of consumption by Dr. Pierce's "Purifier of the Blood."

Mr. McKinley was to inaugurate an era of universal prosperity. He has nothing of the kind. The obvious cause of the depression is the lack of public attention from home affairs, missing foreign complications. The main practice of American diplomacy is to ignore the problems of the Great Britain. Yet, although we are the sincerity of Mr. Sherman's declaration that the American people are of its apparently accidental disclosure, thank The New York Herald for its words and for the American press newspapers of America are largely responsible for the ill-feelings toward the United States.
